

American People's Democratic Party

(aka: A.P. Democratic Party or APD Party)

I Have A “NEW” Dream,

I am a concerned American, businessman, father, and a lifetime Democrat who has never played in the political arena. I have no personal agenda or political aspirations, although I see a Democratic Party with no soul, no conviction, or a party that has an ultra liberal fringe that is passionately strangling the bigger picture, and a party that has to set about a coherent vision and a future that benefits the majority of the American people! When I see a Republican Party that has a President that potentially has conspired with a sworn enemy, a party that espouses a vision of the long forgotten fights for civil rights, and in my opinion what should be a Republican Party that is gasping its last breath as a political party who belongs next to Alexander Hamilton’s Federalist Party of the golden days of racism, segregation, and days gone past! Yet, the Republican Party is still able to cultivate enough of a consensus to win anything, least of all an election of ideas and the future of this nation!

What we have is a Democratic Party that is still organizing like it’s the 1960’s and a mentality of “Back Of The Bus” style strategy or void of core beliefs, and an agenda that is obsolete and stale! If you asked what the party stands for you would get a hundred different answers, where you should have a core set of beliefs that center around “One” main rallying point.. “The American People!” This new truism would position the Democratic Party to win national elections for the next quarter century!

Introducing the new.. “AMERICAN PEOPLE’S DEMOCRATIC PARTY” (aka: A.P. Democratic Party.. or APD Party).. “A Big Tent political party that is built within the current Democratic Party structure,” which by design invites various viewpoints, ideas, policies, and governing that centers around a focus of the people outward! This new party would have multiple wings or caucuses that espouses varying viewpoints with the commonality of being “A Party of the People.. for the People First!” A political party that coalesces and works together to form a consensus to governing that respects the opinions and beliefs of everyone in the political spectrum and social perspectives. A party where no individual wing or caucus gets 100% or all of what they desire, although are vowed to stand united with a benchmark or balance of political ideas, actions and governing.

Example Party Wings/Caucuses:

- Red Dog Party Wing - More Republican or Conservative leaning that generally believe in the framework of less government intrusion, less taxes, and regulation as a template to governing, although focuses less on the ideas of social conservatism. They might silently approve of the idea of the “Caucasian Privilege” in America.
- Liberal Party Wing - they believe in ideas that are far left of the mainstream, almost an altruistic viewpoint of liberal ideas as the way to govern and could be viewed as having a more or less lack of understanding of the meaning of moderation of viewpoints. More likely “Feel the Bern” leaning Democrats.
- Moderate Party Wing - The progressive or more moderate (The Traditional Democratic Party) leaning in political viewpoints and more willing to have or broker a consensus viewpoint to governing. This wing of the party can believe in a healthy assortment of all of the wing's perspectives, ideas, and beliefs, while promoting a healthy balance of smart and effective government and balance between the needs of government, business, and the people.

- Green Party Wing - A wing of the party that passionately cares about the planet and champions viewpoints that protect their ideas and viewpoints that America and the world are running out of time to make drastic changes to protect the earth's survival.

The New "American People's Democratic Party" Core Governing Platform:

- Smart and effective strategic partnerships between people, business and government.
- Less political noise and divisive policies that separates the American people, which includes a more honest social and political dialog and its effect locally, statewide, and nationally.
- Supports less national representative interaction and time spent in Washington, with the belief that politicians must pledge to serve their country like the military, which means less pay, less personal benefits, and elimination of long term retirement benefits for politicians.
- A basic belief that healthcare is an American's right to have "Universal Access" to basic coverage where everybody pays or shares in the cost mitigation and that basic healthcare should not be a for profit entity.
- Less government intrusion into an individual's personal lives or a man or woman's lifestyle choices, social, health, and religious beliefs of people.
- Supports an individual's right to personal privacy, without sacrificing the government's ability to keep the American people safe from terrorism, domestic or foreign intrusion.
- Supports "Smart" government that incentivises business success through less taxes, while still supporting a government safety net for the less fortunate and working class people.
- A Party platform that respects the fact that we all can be good Americans without demonizing any group or groups that differ in mindset or having the government try to legislate relationships.
- A party that believes in building a "First-in-Class" internal infrastructure of the future is the way to maintain American dominance worldwide.
- Supports a strong and effective military, although believes strongly in limiting its use.
- Supports a new flat tax for the low to medium income Americans, while supporting a more robust progressive tax system that is designed to severely discourage ridiculous pay to the top (10%) wage earners who do not do the actual work, yet receive disproportionately high gross wages.
- A highly severe and regressive death tax that discourages "Oligarchs" the ability to transfer generational wealth for the few to subvert the majority of the American people or allow the hyper-rich to subvert our system of governing.

- Supports establishing a better balance between business necessity and ensuring the inhabitants and earth's survival, while endorsing policies that respect the air, water, and overall quality of our planet.
- A party that believes in getting America's financial house back into balance.

Constitutional Amendments:

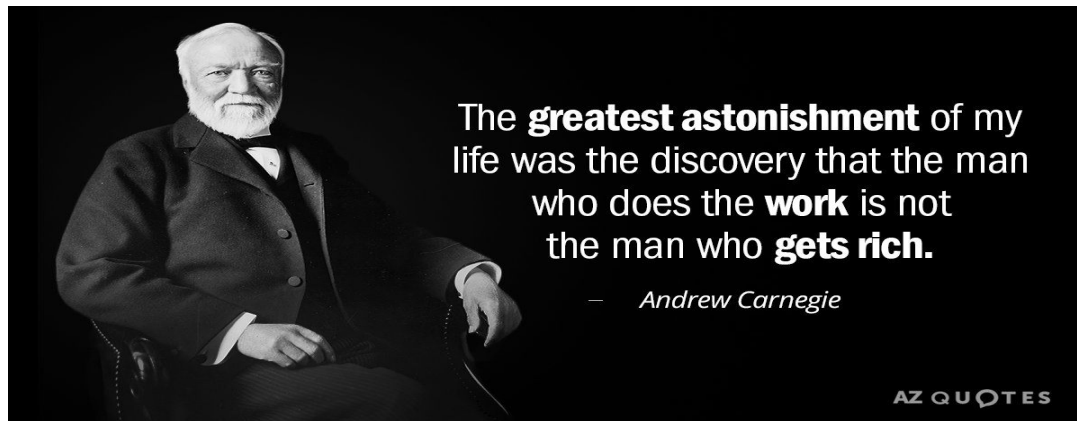

- Supports a constitutional amendment that limits national legislators to term limits in serving or governing.
- Supports a constitutional amendment that limits a business or individual to have more or less of a voice than the average person.
- Supports a constitutional amendment that politicians can not govern on a national level and then return to lobby the national government after serving your country.
